NOT A CALLOUT, THIS IS A ‘SPARKNOTES’ OF SORTS FOR UNINFORMED MEMBERS OF THE SERVER.

DO NOT HARASS SHISTER OR ANY OF THEIR AFFILIATES

Shister should not be supported within this server, nor their commentary cited, for the following reasons:

- The most blatant and easy to prove; ableism.

Despite having many posts and disclaimers in their videos about their epilepsy / neurological conditions, in which they request kindness, patience and tolerance with their speech, memory and communication issues, they do not extend others the same kindness behind closed doors. Upon joining Goatcatto’s Drama Discord Server, they, unprompted, DMed me to express annoyance / discomfort with who they viewed as neurodivergent members acting in a… well, neurodivergent way:

To be clear, since people will misread this and try to flip it back on me, I do not claim to be a saint. I am not always the kindest and I do not temper my language; but I do not pretend to do otherwise. I do not roleplay the soft, gentle, safe-space queer like Shister does. My point here is the hypocrisy, and that many in their audience who believed them to be a safe space may not feel so safe nor want to support them knowing how they are when they think nobody is watching.

- Roleplaying as a racial minority.

Yes. You heard that right.

Shister is a British, English-speaking, white person. They plan on, but have not yet, immigrating to the United States. So why then, you may ask, does Shister apply Trump's racist rhetoric against non-English speaking, non-white immigrants within the US to himself? And why does Shister claim to be from a 'poor country' and mention their 'country's poverty' when their country of origin is the United Kingdom? Well, we don't know either.

idk why people are so harsh to people with harmless opinions , i don't like my country or culture , i feel like im allowed to feel that way no?????????

a small minority say it's offensive because i come from a poor country but my countries poverty led to me being left with untreated epilepsy for 4 years (i have medication now) and other issues, it completely ruined my life

idk it's just so weird that some people are so against me having trauma relating to my country???? you can love my country all you want but it won't ever stop the pain and damage it caused on me, im permanently disabled now i will talk about how much i hate it because i genuinely feel sick interacting with most people from my country , i can't help the way i feel, and i don't treat people badly for it, i just feel immensely uncomfortable

How do I make this about me…?

shister @xshister · Nov 6, 2024
i think everyone looked over donald trump calling immigrants illegal aliens because of how ridiculous it sounds, but now it's a reality, immigrants are no longer human in the eyes of america wow really reminds me of a certain 1900s country

this is very similar to how nazis called jewish people and other ethnicities "subhuman"("untermensch"), we rly are finished and my future as an immigrant looks scary

- On top of this, trying to police how African Americans feel about the use of AAVE as a white British person who likes to pretend they're a minority group they are not.

shister @shistter · 18/04/2021
hear me out but having certain words / phrases (non slur ofc!) that black people can only say,,, sort of creates more division between non poc people and white people because it's stereotyping that only black people speak in a certain way,,, :(

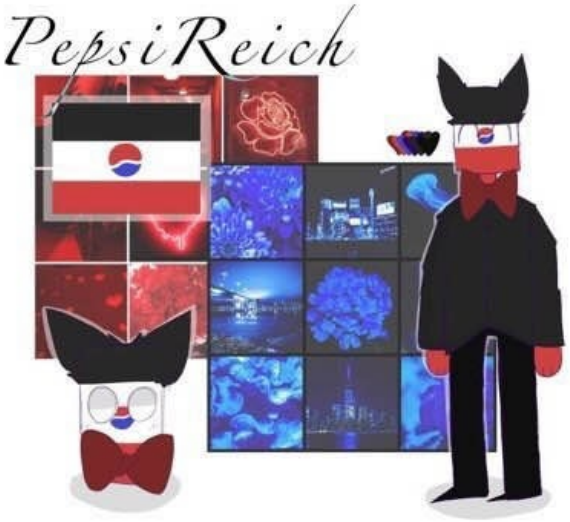
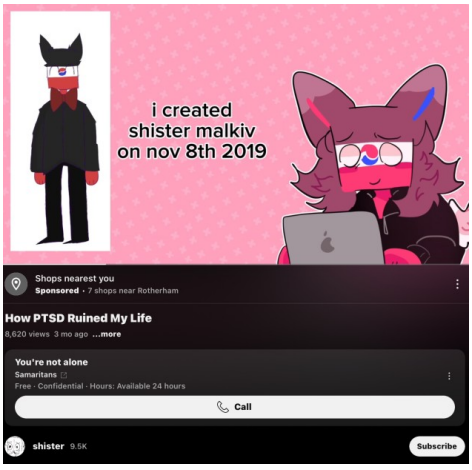
- Reichtangle adjacent character, admittedly so. Has been pointed out to resemble reichtangle several times. Comparison made even clearer in older designs. If by some miracle this were a coincidence, why would you keep an OC that so closely resembles a Nazi character?
- Confounded by their previous affiliation with the country humans / flags / whatever community. This is like saying a FNAF fan with an OC that looks identical to Chica got there by accident. Their Amino page also shows more art of the OC before it was colour shifted, despite the colour differences being one of the key defences for it not being Reichtangle.
- Old reference sheet that was removed from their twitter wherein the character is referred to as ‘Pepsi Reich’. This image is confirmed to belong to them, as in their PTSD video, they crop it so that the reference is visible but the text is not.
- Despite the obvious conflations that have come from several angles since the invention of the character, Shister becomes upset / defensive when you compare their OC with Reichtangle or Pepsi.

The deleted reference sheet and the cropped version found within their video:





Evidence of them being in the country flags (I can't believe this is a thing) fandom: https://aminoapps.com/c/countryhuman796/page/user/nnn/ER4z_v5nF4fwED5E3wZN8NWdJwJn3XEZDPkUG

- Lesser note, but one I and the community within the server felt was gross- despite their reluctance to retire an OC that is repeatedly compared to the Reichtangle (and thus belittling the seriousness of that comparison), they refer to Jewish people as 'Jews' and make strange posts about them such as the one below. Some Jewish people are not offended by the term 'Jew,' personally, I am not, but I feel that when you are someone with an OC like this that you will not retire, it becomes a little suspect that you also use a dehumanising term towards the Nazi’s main target.

- Shister also produced artwork of this OC x the USSR. I… Listen, I’ve never been in this community, but according to the more ‘cultured’ people around me, Nazi Germany x USSR was / is just an extremely common ship in this community. I think too much is piling up for Shister to continue lying about this OC not originating from Reichtangle.

random fact: shister has extremely bad eyesight so he needs to wear glasses for literally everything ussr / nikita usually is the one to look after shister as he is a bit unstable :(
(he worries a lot about shister) shister only has half of his vessel left after one of his scide attempts (diagnosed with ptsd, bulimia, anhrexia and ocd)
"no hugs right now please" (struggles with s/h)
shister doesn't appreciate sudden physical contact

- BIRDIE VIDEO wherein they downplay the grooming section between Jack and Dragy (at the time, 16 and 13 years old respectively) by claiming Jack had ‘good intentions’. Their evidence for this is that Jack broke up with Dragy…

But I would argue that ‘good intentions’ would start with not grooming a 13 year old, not with ending the grooming.

The timestamp wherein they say this:
https://youtu.be/ykLK-RK3TR8?t=702

I have this clipped if the video is removed for any reason. No, the “however he should be held accountable anyways!” Does NOT dismiss you from the disgusting and dangerous take that grooming is okay / can be belittled / is ‘less likely to be grooming’ if you felt the predator had ‘good intentions’.

- They admit that they are dissatisfied with their commentary work, that they do not script, that they struggle to comprehend and convey ideas, and they obviously say pretty inflammatory and upsetting things as a result. Despite this, they continue making commentary, even covering serious topics such as grooming, pedophilia, etc. to a young audience.

shister 18 hours ago
not too proud of my most recent commentary video!!!): idk i just struggle so much to comprehend stuff (as always) , i get so unsatisfied when i can’t reach a solid conclusion , my right temporal lobe wins again . criticism is welcomed, just be kind i can’t understand very well if it’s mixed with a lot of insults . it’s already so hard for me to understand people please be kind ☹

It should go without saying that if you are not able to hold yourself in a commentary video, you should not be making such claims, takes and videos to a young, impressionable audience. Belittling topics such as grooming, purposefully or not, by citing 'good intentions' is an incredibly dangerous line of thinking to feed to children- the #1 victims of grooming.

- On a note specific to this server (as I'm sure people will spread this doc around as an expose, which it is not), Shister's commentary also should not be cited nor used as an evidence base for the simple fact that it is lackluster and not worth consuming. They never have anything new to bring to the table, they do not have definitive takeaways for most of their content, and they fence-sit on a lot of important topics. This is not constructive content and gives us little to work with in terms of discussion. It's also worth noting that they seem to not research properly, whether due to disability or not (the outcome is the same and thus doesn't matter, the content should not exist anyways), lacking basic information such as their video topic's age.

the one thing i'd say is that I wished you discouraged Juni from making videos about adult topics and involving themself in them. not out of malice, but because they are only 15. I do think you didn't know their age at the time as while they're open about it its not exactly everywhere, which is fine! But this is dangerous and harmful for them, they're still a student. Your video has a lot of emphasis' on ages, and i think Juni's should be taken into account and we should encourage them...

- Irresponsibility with their platform.

Despite being a small creator, Shister posts a lot of vent content, especially regarding sexual assault. To be clear: It is 100% okay to vent about sexual trauma, artistically or otherwise, publicly or otherwise. It is not something to be ashamed of, and art is a very healthy outlet. HOWEVER, Shister exists within the Animation Meme Community, and has acknowledged that they think their audience is young and had as much confirmed to them. The sort of content they produce is not suitable for this kind of audience, and really should be left to a side-account aimed more clearly at older audiences.
